Ross-Everett Nuptials.

Monday evening at half past six at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Everett, 818 North Third street, Mrs. Everett Everett became the bride of Mr. Edmund Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pitt Ross, Archdeacon W. E. Warren read the impressive ring service.

The bride looked charming in an exquisite gown of white crepe material, draped with brocaded chiffon and trimmed with Spanish lace. Her beautiful lace veil, which was worn forty years ago by an aunt of Miss Everett, was arranged cap-fashion and reached to the end of the train on her gown. She carried a shower bouquet of birds' roses.

Miss Everett was attended by Miss Hazel Maloy, who wore a particularly becoming gown of rose charrmance with panel of lace. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. Mr. Robert Sewell attended Mr. Ross.

Only members of the families and of the Phi Mu and Sigma Tau fraternities and Reverend and Mrs. Hugh Cooper witnessed the ceremony.

After the wedding punch and delicious cakes tinted to represent rose and white, and black and gold, the fraternal colors, were served. The wedding cake was particularly attractive and delicious. It was frosted with white and on top of it was a crystal basket filled with pink and white sweet peas.

Just before leaving to attire herself in her smart traveling suit, she made three bouquets and it was caught by Miss Ruth Bright.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross left on train No. 8 or Denver, Colorado Springs and other points in Colorado.

They will return to Albuquerque some time in June and will be at home to their friends at 315 North Eleventh street.

The Everett home was beautifully decorated for the wedding. The Phi Mu colors, rose and white, were carried out with a profusion of carnations and sweet peas, which appeared to especial advantage against the background of sapphirus plumes, maidenhair fern and smilax. The entire effect was particularly attractive.

In Honor of Miss Grimmer.

A number of affairs are being planned for Miss Kathryn Grimmer, whose marriage to Mr. Bay Haywill take place June third.

Two very delightful functions were given for the bride-to-be this week.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. James Hotner and Mrs. W. E. Grimmer gave a quilting bee. There were twenty-two guests and after an industrious and altogether pleasant afternoon a delectable lunch was served.

Today Mrs. Grimmer gave a luncheon for fourteen in honor of her daughter. The menu was delicious and the centerpiece of roses together with the tiny suitcases and hat-boxes made the table especially inviting.

Miss Lena Price Weds in Denver.

Miss Lena Price, who is a niece of Mrs. Simon Stern of this city, was married in Denver, Tuesday, May 19, to Mr. Henry Wineman of Los Angeles.

The wedding was a very small affair.
